IIMSAM`S Director-General Maradona pays tribute after Polish leader and dozens of others are killed in plane crash

Amb.. R.Maradona Director-General of IIMSAM with the Late Polish President H.E. Lech Kaczynski at the Franklin Delano Roosevelt International Disability Award 2007 United Nations Headquarters.

IIMSAM-HEADQUARTERS, NEW YORK. 11 April 2010 – IIMSAM`S Director-General has voiced his shock and sadness of yesterday's plane crash in western Russia that has killed the Polish President, his wife and many senior Government officials. “On behalf of the IIMSAM, I expresses my deepest and heartfelt condolences to the people and Government of Poland and to the families of those who perished,” said IIMSAM`S DG.

“The Director-General said President Kaczynski had served his country and people with distinction and conviction, and was deservedly respected internationally and was a fighter for the rights of the Disabled and most vulnerable. I was privileged and honoured to have met him as a physically challenged person myself, President Kacznski was an inspiration to me and millions of disabled peoples around the world. H.E. President Lech Kacznski received the Franklin Delano Roosevelt International Disability Award on behalf of his country Republic of Poland in 2007 which is presented by the Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt Institute to a UN Member State that makes noteworthy progress towards the full participation of citizens with disabilities as called for in the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.
