Official Press Release

IIMSAM extends its best wishes to its goodwill ambassador from the Republic of India Mr. Sanjay Dutt at the onset of his political innings

(H.E. Amb. Manish Uprety, Special Envoy to South Asia with IIMSAM Goodwill Ambassador Mr. Sanjay Dutt)

(United Nations Headquarters, New York, 26TH January 2009) IIMSAM's Director General H.E. Amb. Remigio Maradona's special emissary H.E. Amb. Manish Uprety, Special Envoy to South Asia visited Mr. Sanjay Dutt, IIMSAM's Goodwill Ambassador who has made a foray into the Indian politics carrying the director general's personal message to Mr. Dutt who shall be contesting parliamentary elections scheduled to be held during April-May 2009.

In his message H.E. Amb. Remigio Maradona extended his best wishes and that of IIMSAM and its stakeholders and supporters from across the world to Mr. Sanjay Dutt and his successful political innings. While congratulating Mr. Dutt, H.E. Remigio Maradona, DG-IIMSAM stated- I am confident that Mr. Sanjay Dutt through his political activism shall bring an awareness and action to mainstream the use of Spirulina to eradicate malnutrition in India-the country that suffers the worst in the world because of malnutrition. Mr. Dutt who brought the Gandhian values to the fore through his movies shall help IIMSAM realize its mandate and the vision of Mahatma Gandhi for the humankind whose basic needs are fulfilled. Food fortification through Spirulina is a potent way to eradicate malnutrition, save lives, and deliver quality nutrition to the peoples of the world. I wish Mr. Dutt all the best in his political innings in India.
