The Goodwill Ambassadors Ceremonies presenting Mr. Cameron with his IIMSAM-GWA

Accreditation took place during an event organized and hosted by CIAAD at the Rotana-Media Hotel in the City of Dubai. UAE on 17 April 2017. The CIAAD advocacy-event to highlight the CIAAD efforts in working together with the UN to seek support from the UN. Thus, accessing the combined strength of the Global creative community from both academia and industry to address humanitarian issues:

The CIAAD/UN Design Challenge in support of the UNSDS Goals in particular Goal# 9 (Build resilient infrastructure, promote sustainable industrialization and foster innovation which is crucial to achieving sustainable development and empowering communities in many countries.) for a rapidly deployable reusable habitat system for the maintenance of communities in disaster zones over the medium term. The reusable structures can be configured to create a compound capable of housing up to 50 families of 4 people over the average time (0.5-2years) in a space about the size of a recreational tennis court.

The solution should consider the need to provide a decent standard of living that includes, but not limited to, spaces for recreation, town hall-style discussions, education, and a marketplace, as well as addressing security, hygiene, and utilities. The community should maximize self-sustainability, and support the families as they rebuild their homes, their bodies and their minds and ultimately achieve the goal of seeing their communities REINVIGORATED.

COMMENTS BY THE NEWLY APPOINTED GOODWILL AMBASSADOR MR. BRETT CAMERON: " Dear Secretary-General Maradona, What can I say, but thank you. A very humbling night. I appreciate all of your support & look forward to all that we can now achieve together. "
