The main purpose of the various editions of the World Family Summit is to promote Family's contribution to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals 2030 Agenda following a multi-stakeholder approach. It constitutes the biggest partnership towards making the present and the future world with more peace, security, justice, tolerance, solidarity, prosperity and integrated by mobilizing and promoting the basic economical, political, socio-cultural and sustainable unit of the society – the Family. The World Family Summit represents a legacy for the future generations, through the engagement of all sectors of Society in a "Learning – Dialogue – Action" process. The focus of the Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development and the core aspiration of the World Family Organization and to highlight the inclusion of the family in the process of development with No Family Left Behind." President WFO. The World Family Summit is organized by the World Family Organization an NGO with the support of the United Nations – Department of Economic and Social Affairs/Partner UNITAR-NGO-Section/UN-NGO-Informal Regional Network "inter alia.

The idea to create an International Organization to deal with Family matters-was born for the first time in June 1, 1946, in an International Congress for Families and Population in Brussels.The first World Family Congress took place in Paris on 22-28 June 1947. The recently created United Nations, along with 200 delegates from 27 nations represented at this Congress, founded the International Union of Family Organizations – IUOF, having the following functions:Reunifying Families separated by the II World War;Documentation;Liason among all civil movements in favour of a better life for all families;Representation within Governments, public opinion and International Organizations, starting with United NationsIn 1997, the 50th Anniversary of the IUFO was celebrated in Foz do Iguacu – Brazil. The General Assembly decided to delegate to the new elected Executive Board the preparation of amendments to the Constitution and the reformulation of the Executive Structures of the Organization according to the document prepared for the Celebration of the 50th Anniversary: "UIOF 50 Years – A New Depart".In 1998, IUFO's General Assembly held in Vienna, Austria, approvedamendments to the Constitution and renamed the institution's name to World Family Organization.
